

The table of fees authorized by the Judicial Conference of the United States includes:

- (1) For docketing a case on appeal or review, or docketing any other proceeding, $250. A separate fee shall be paid by each party filing a notice of appeal in the district court, but parties filing a joint notice of appeal in the district court are required to pay only one fee. A docketing fee shall not be charged for the docketing of an application for the allowance of an interlocutory appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 1292(b), unless the appeal is allowed. (See also item 13 below.)
- (2) For every search of the records of the court and certifying the results thereof, $26. This fee shall apply to services rendered on behalf of the United States if the information requested is available through electronic access.
- (3) For certifying any document or paper, whether the certification is made directly on the document or by separate instrument, $9.
- (4) For reproducing any record or paper, 50 cents per page. This fee shall apply to paper copies made from either: (1) original documents; (2) or microfiche or microfilm reproductions of the original record. This fee shall apply to services rendered on behalf of the United States if the record or paper requested is available through electronic access.
- (5) For reproduction of recordings of proceedings, regardless of the medium, $26, including the cost of materials. This fee shall apply to services rendered on behalf of the United States if the reproduction of the recording is available electronically.
- (6) For reproduction of the record in any appeal in which the requirement of an appendix is dispensed with by any court of appeals pursuant to Rule 30(f), F.R.A.P., a flat fee of $71.
- (7) For each microfiche or microfilm copy of any court record, where available, $5.
- (8) For retrieval of a record from a Federal Records Center, National Archives, or other storage location removed from the place of business of the court, $45.
- (9) For a check paid into the court which is returned for insufficient funds, $45.
- (10) For copies of opinions, .50 cents per page.
- (11) For admission to the Bar of the Sixth Circuit, $200.
- (12) The court may charge and collect fees commensurate with the cost of providing copies of the local rules of court. The court may also distribute copies of the local rules without charge.
- (13) The clerk shall assess a charge for the handling of registry funds deposited with the court, to be assessed from interest earnings and in accordance with the detailed feeschedule issued by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

(14) Upon the filing of any separate or joint notice of appeal or application for appeal from the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel, or notice of the allowance of an appeal from the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel, or of a writ of certiorari, $5 shall be paid by the appellant or petitioner.

COMMITTEE NOTE: New rule.
